NUMB. 322.

FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1744.

Genoa, June 13.

THE Infant Don Philip has caused to be notified to the Republick, his Arrival at Lovano; a Fief dependant on the Marquisate of Final, and belonging to the House of Dorias. We are assured, that his Royal Highness, at the same Time, reclaim'd the Artillery and Ammunition which the English forced us to send to Corfica. It is whisper'd here, that if we cannot restore the individual Cannon, Barrels of Powder, and Cases of Ball, we must furnish an Equivalent; because it is simply impossible for the Spaniards to transport either Artillery or Ammunition hither, at this Juncture; and without them, they had as good be elsewhere. The Council sat from Six in the Evening till Two in the Morning; and then resolv'd to send a Deputation to the Royal Infant, to beseech him to alter his Measures, and not to persist in his Design of passing thro' their Territories, because the Republick is determined to observe a strict Neutrality. This Morning an Officer arrived from his Sardinian Majesty, with another civil Message, that Novi was at this Juncture a Place very convenient for his Use; and that therefore he hoped the Republick would not scruple letting him have it for a Place of Arms; since he must, otherwise, be obliged to blow up and destroy all the Roads into Lombardy. It is not known what Answer either has been, or will be, return'd.

Lugbo, June 13. We are excessively alarm'd here, at the News we have lately received, which is, that the Piedmontese have abandon'd Oniglia; where we expected they would have made an obstinate Defence. As it is, the Passages into Lombardy are undoubtedly open'd, and Don Philip is at Liberty to pass into the Duchy of Parma, either by St. Peter d'Arena or Serravalle; so that we take it for granted he will be there in three Weeks Time. Our last Advices from the Army of Prince Lobkowitz are by no Means agreeable. His Highness is very apprehensive that, after all, the King of the Two Sicilies intends to act offensively; which if he should do with Success, it is not easy to say how our Army would be able to retreat; besides all this, his Highness begins to be very sensible that his Army is mouldering away thro' Diseases and Desertion; and that if the Count de Gages can avoid fighting for three Weeks, it will be the same Thing to him as gaining a Victory; for which Reason, Prince Lobkowitz has very prudently resolv'd to get two Gates of the City of Rome, either by fair Means, or by Force, that he may be sure of finding Shelter somewhere. If, on the other Hand, he can dislodge the Spaniards, we are morally certain a Rebellion will break out in the Kingdom of Naples.

Paris, June 26. They write from Versailles, that all Trade is absolutely at a Stand there; that Admiral Matheux insults them every Day; and that they have Intelligence from his Fleet, his Excellency has fixed the 15th for the Day of the Bombardment. His Majesty certainly intends to go to the Army on the Rhine; which has occasioned the principal Officers sending hither for new Cloaths, that they may make the better Figure at a Review. They talk very much at Court of a general Peace. They say, the Maritime Powers will be satisfied with the Plan; that the King will fix the Emperor at Brussels, till such Time as the Queen of Hungary restores him to his Hereditary Dominions; and that his Majesty of Sardinia will have an Equivalent given him for the Duchy of Savoy, which is to remain to France. We have also another extraordinary Piece of News brought us from America by Mr. Renaud, who arrived at Brest on the 22d, from Canada, with Advice, that Acadia is recover'd, which was yielded to Great Britain by the Peace of Utrecht; that we have taken 100 Vessels employed in the Cod Fishery, a vast Quantity of dry'd Fish, and are Masters, at present, of all that Part of the World. A Courier has been dispatched this Moment with this Advice to the Camp; from whence our last Letters say, that his Majesty propos'd to invest Furnes immediately after Ypres; that as soon as it surrenders, he will march immediately to Ghent, while the Duke de Harcourt takes Newport and Ostend.

The incomparable POWDER for Cleaning the TEETH,

Has withstood, by its most excellent and known Virtues, the Attempts of many repeated Counterfeits; some imitating it by the Name of Powder, others under several other Names; therefore pray take Notice, that the only true, efficient, and original Powder, is sold no where else, but at mention'd below: It is sent for in large Quantities from the Plantations beyond the Seas, where good Allowance is given; and is as effectual in the East and West Indies as at London.

It has given surprizing Satisfaction to most of the Nobility and Gentry in England, and 40 Years last past, that it hath been published, and vast Quantities of it still continue to be sold.

It is sold only at Mrs. King's Toyshop, the Blue-street, against the Cross-Keys Tavern in Cornhill, and at Mr. Markham's Great Toy-shop, the Seven Stars now (since the is removed) directly over-against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleetstreet, and no where else in England at 1 s. each Box.

N. B. Pray mind you send to the right Place; for the Shop Mrs. Markham is removed from, has also got the Seven Stars for its Sign.

At once using it makes the Teeth as white as Ivory, tho' ever so black or yellow before, and effectually preserves them from rotting or decaying, continuing them found to exceeding old Age. It wonderfully cures the Scurry in the Gums, prevents Rheum or Desquiction, kills the Worms at the Roots of the Teeth, and thereby hinders the Tooth-ach. It admirably fastens loose Teeth, being a neat cleanly Medicine, of a pleasant and grateful Scent, and in Virtue far exceeds any Thing ever yet found out for those Purposes.

All the Nobility, Gentry, &c. who send to Mrs. Markham's for the Powder for Teeth, are desired to give strict Orders not to mistake the Shop, (MARKHAM at length is under the Seven Stars) because most of the Toy-men in their Neighbourhood, seeing Multitudes go to her Shop for it, have cramp'd up Counterfeits and sell their Stuff in Imitation of this known and approved Powder, in Prejudice to the Publick, &c.

The LIP-SALVE.
Which is so much esteem'd, and of so many Years large Experience, and whose Virtues vastly exceed any of the many Counterfeits, since its first Publication, is sold at the same Places at 1 s. each Box.

For in two or three Hours time it heals them, tho' never so rough or chapt; prevents the Skin from peeling, and makes them delicately soft and smooth, giving them a becoming rosy-brown Colour; the Fragrance of its Odour also renders the Breath fine and sweet, and it may be eaten for its Safety.
